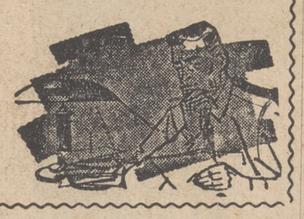
The DIMMER VIEW

by Max Goodwin



The D.A. Caper (Part I)

The district attorney's race is more than a battle between a couple of strong candidates.

It's a battle of philosophies.

Although there are six candidates, only two are making waves—and one is making waves so big it may upset the law enforcement ecology of the entire county.

Stars of the show are Bob Thomas, present assistant district attorney and Ed Miller, a former U.S. attorney.

Bit players are Mike Schaefer and Floyd Morrow, both San Diego City Councilmen, and Steve Gillis, once associated with Mother Gillis, who was executed in a State penitentiary, and Frank Prantil, a criminal attorney (no disrespect intended). Most savvy politician-watchers don't give the latter four a call.

The wave-maker is Miller. He fronts for a group sometimes described as avant garde. This group seeks to take over.

Bob Thomas is sponsored by his boss, District Attorney Don Keller. Keller's name is synonomous with Mr. Kleen's and J. Edgar Hoover's.

Keller successfully sought his office six times for a period of 24 years. How can anybody knock that?

He could win it again but he is retiring. He would win in spite of the inuendo and falacious inferences that stem from Thomas's opponents. Some of these will be discussed in the next article.

San Diego is one of the cleanest cities in the nation and Thomas is a political neophyte, but he will follow Keller's policies. He is on public record on this position.

The Miller group is said to be backed by the former city attorney Ed Butler, Robert Peterson and Richard Silberman who are characterized as "Young Turks." Thus it pits the New Generation against the Old Guard.

Important in the Old Guard are such people as C. Arnholt Smith, Andy Borthwick and Pascal Dilday. These men have served San Diego exceedingly well.

Peterson and Silberman are in a group which seized control of the Southern California First National Bank a couple of years ago. They, better than most, portray the new, aggressive business philosophy which is challenging the old.

Smith, Dilday and Borthwick are among the architects of the present bright, new, solid San Diego. All have their rather sizable fortunes invested in it.

True or not, some have voiced fear that Mission Valley Circle will become a minor Las Vegas if the new boys take over.

Be that as it may, the battle is as hot as it is one-sided.

The opponents are serving up a lot of razzle-dazzle on Thomas. Thomas is politically naive — but he has an unimpeachable reputation as an astute district attorney. No one dares question his integrity.

We suspect that Thomas, and Don Keller saw no connection between a feature which appeared in the Wall Street Journal last year and the current district attorney's race. He sees that connection now.

The article pictured Smith as a political manipulator. Smith should have sued the newspaper. He would have won the suit. It may be that Smith didn't recognize the article as an oblique attack on the district attorney's office. Later events sharpened up the picture.

Then came a book titled "Poso del Mundo" written by Ovid Demaris which also attacked the D.A.'s office by inuendo. There's material for a libel suit there, too.

It associated Smith with John Alessio, according to a review written by Betty McKaig in the San Diego Independent. She is said to have registered a plea of ignorance when she faced a charge of libel after she reprinted some of the material the book contained. It is not known that the material is factual. The book, it is said, offered old material, dressed in modern togs, and dished it up as hitherto unrevealed revelations.

As the race unfolds, it becomes more suspect that some of these articles could have been tipped, or even planted by forces not wanting a no-foolishness, no-crime tolerated district attorney.

Interlaced were such charges as San Diego police wrongdoing, organized crime encroachment, consumer fraud disinterest, bookmaking toleration, failure to prosecute the Alessio interests, casual narcotics philosophy, and inroads of organized crime in San Diego.

Those making such allegations lied!

Since no one can produce a valid charge regarding wrongdoing by the district attorney's office during the 24 years past, the attacks must necessarily be by inuendo and allegation. Such silly charges that the DA's office wasn't prosecuting felony cases were proved to be federal tax stamp gambling cases in which the County District Attorney's office had the least responsibility.

How some of these accusations were gerrymandered into political amunition solely for political purposes without a basis of fact will be revealed in the next edition of this column.

This material is revealed so that voters may vote more intelligently.

Oldtime Days Underway Today, Parade Set For Saturday

The 7th Annual Lemon Grove Oldtime Days festivities got underway today with sales by merchants and entertainment for all. Many of the merchants dressed in old fashioned costumes.

The 20-piece Mount Miguel Pep Band entertains Thursday and Friday at 3:30 on the sidewalk in front of the Sprouse-Reitz Store.

At Palm Junior High, students will wear old fashioned costumes tomorrow in a special salute to the 7th annual Oldtime Days celebrations.

Garters

Garters, long dresses, baggy blue jeans, and "strange" hats will be seen on campus throughout the day.

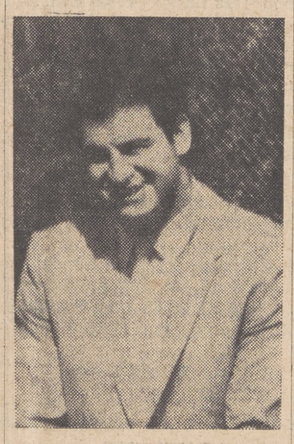
Saturday the festivities will reach a peak as the celebration builds to the big parade. This year there will be over 117 units.

Parade units will begin assembling early Saturday morning on the side streets, off Broadway near Massachusetts. At 11 a.m. the parade will march east on Broadway to the music of at least seven bands.

At the assembly point the floats in the parade will be judged and the best depicting the theme "Bygone Days" will be named. Trophies will be awarded for first, second and third place.

Judges for the floats will be named during the parade and will make trophy presentations from the grandstand on the parking lot at Mayfair Market.

The grandstand will be erected Saturday morning and will seat 300 spectators. Seats cost $1 each. Persons attending the Oldtime Days Kickoff Dinner had tickets validated and will be entitled to a seat free.



Ron Mix

This year the parade will be headed by Grand Marshal Ron Mix. Miss Lemon Grove, Sandi Sjogren will ride in an honored position as will a number of native residents of the city.

Prominent in the line of march will be the famed Champion Clydesdale Six Horse Hitch of the Burgermeister Brewing Co. The magnificent animals, each weighing over a ton, will pull a 5,000 pound wagon built over 70 years ago. The team has been named international champion in nine of the last ten years. In 43 years of competition in the Chicago Livestock Show the team has won more First Prize trophies than all other six horse hitches combined.

Sandi Sjogren

Featured band in this year's parade will be the unit from Grossmont High School. This band has been in every one of the Lemon Grove Oldtime Days parades to date.

In addition to the parade there are many activities planned for Saturday. Dr. Sam Smith will be in charge of the Children's Costume Contest on the parking lot at the corner of Broadway and Olive after the parade. This contest is sponsored by the Lemon Grove Senior Citizens.

Nearby, on the same lot, Elton Carl, three times National Fast Draw Champion, will give a demonstration of his skill with a six-gun.

On the parking lot at Warren's Furniture there will be a display of dune buggies by The Dune Bug Club. The parking lot of United States National Bank will be the scene of a display of antique cars and there is even a train robbery.

Stan Ring and his desperados will hold up the San Diego and Arizona Eastern Railroad near the intersection of Main and Broadway, prior to the parade.

Ring has boasted he will rob the train in retaliation for past years when the trains have interrupted the parade.

The parade itself promises to be spectacular with many of the finest equestrian units from the area, also the fabulous Al Bahr Clowns, San Diego Unicycle Riders, Smokey the Bear, The San Diego Clowns, and our own pride and joy, The Lemon Grove Lemonettes.

1914 Pumper

For lovers of fire equipmen there will be a 1914 Seagrave pumper in the line of march and, by way of contrast, the latest in fire fighting apparatus, the La Mesa snorkel. The always dependable Lemon Grove Fire Department will also take part.

The parade will be announced from seven vantage points with the announcing chores handled by members of the Lemon Grove and Spring Valley Toastmasters Clubs.

The Lemon Grove Womens Club Juniors will have refreshments on sale on the parking lot in front of the Village Liquor Store.

After the parade the Clydesdale horses will be on display along the railroad right-of-way on Main, across from the Chamber of Commerce offices.

The well known Levis and Laces Square Dance Club will stage a demonstration of fine oldtime dancing at the Lemon Grove Womens Club on Main street at 7 p.m. Saturday.

To complete the day in grand style there will be an old fashioned beef barbecue at St. Philip's Church, Palm and Hardy. The barbecue is open to the public. It will start at noon.

The L.G. Moose Lodge will serve a Mexican dinner at its new hall from noon til 5 p.m.

FIGHTING FIRE — Units from the Spring Valley and Lemon Grove fire departments rolled to a blazing accident on Sweetwater road Saturday, to put out a fire stretching across Sweetwater and into a garage, and race four people to the hospital.
The victims of the blaze received burns, but were reported doing well at Kaiser Hospital on Monday. Two of the three vehicles involved were totaled.

Two Children, Mother Burned In Auto Wreck

The Lemon Grove Fire Department answered three fire calls for the week of May 11-18, the most serious being on Saturday, May 16 on Sweetwater rd., north of Lamar st.

There they assisted the Spring Valley Fire Department in extinguishing a car fire in which a mother and two small children were burned. The car was totally demolished.

The Calif. Highway Patrol pointed out that Robert Shartel, 25, of 8651 Sandybed In., Lemon Grove, driving his car on Sweetwater was hit in the rear by a car driven by Joe Marshall, 38, of Chula Vista, exploding the gas tank on the Shartel car.

The L.G.F.D. report was that the Shartel car then went down a small incline toward a house and garage and hit a parked car. Gasoline from the Shartel car ran into the garage, causing a small fire.

In the Shartel car were Mrs. Joanne Shartel, 27, and two Shartel children; Mark, 6-months old, and Mathew, 17-months old. The mother and children were taken to Kaiser Foundation with moderate burns, and Robert Shartel said he would follow the ambulance (Spring Valley ambulance).

On May 11 at 3:05 p.m., firemen went to Pacific and Olive drs., where children and matches had been responsible for starting a small grass fire, but with no damage.

On May 12, at 7:23 a.m., firemen responded to a call from 1636 La Corta. However it was needless, as someone thought a car was afire, but it was just steam from an overheated radiator.

The Lemon Grove rescue team made one call during the week. On May 11 at 2:25 p.m. they went to 4611 Jetham st., La Mesa. Jeff Cramer, 18, had been overcome with heat while working in the sun. He was sent to a hospital and later released.

Learn Spanish the Easy Way

Hardison's Telespanish

By JAMES HARDISON

Are the school systems in the Spanish-speaking countries based on elementary, secondary, and high school levels like our schools in the United States?

In most Spanish-speaking countries the first six grades of school are call "primaria" (primary). The next three years are referred to as "secundaria" (secondary). Only "primaria" and "secundaria" are public schools. After the ninth year of schooling students may continue their studies only when they can afford to attend privately financed schools.

The term "clegio" (college) is frequently mis-translated. Because of the similar appearance to the English word we see this translated as college. Correct reference in the translation of "colegio" equates it with "secundaria" which is equivalent to our junior high school.

"Preparatorio" (preparatory) is a two year school which is taken after "secundaria" and prepares students for the more difficult work in "la universidad." Most universities, like the ones in the United States, require from four to six years of study to complete their prescribed courses. The length of time depends greatly upon the degree sought.

In conversation one might ask a student "En que ano estas?" for "In what year (grade) are you?" A response might be "Estoy en el tecer ano." for "I am in the third grade."

Practice phrases below reflect some references to the various levels of schools in Spanish-speaking countries. See if you can learn the phrases with the aid of the recorded voice that says them for you when you dial 276-2762 on your telephone.

IMPORTANT PHRASES

Say "En que ano estas?" (ehn keh AHN-yoh eh-STAHS) for "What year (grade) are you in?"

Say "Estoy en el tecer ano." (eh-STOH-ee ehn ehl teh-SEHR AHN-yoh) for "I am in the third year (grade).

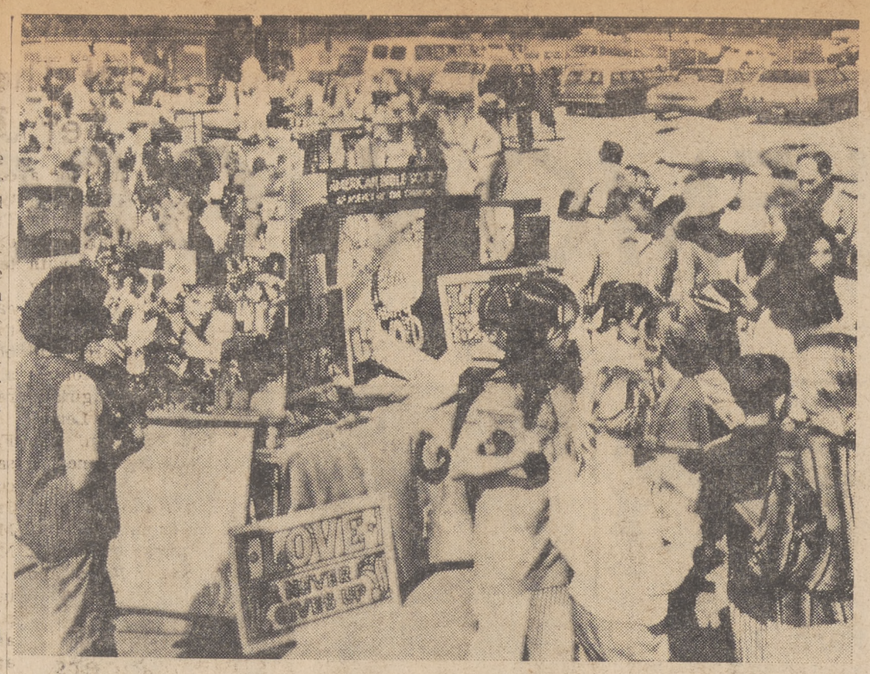
USEFUL PHRASES

Say "Cuando terminas secundaria?" (koo-AHN-doh tehr-MEE-nahs seh-koon-DAH-ree-ah)
for "When do you finish junior high?"

Say "Termino en dos anos." (tehr-MEE-noh ehn dohs AHN-yohs)
for "I (will) finish in two years."

Since World War II, college fraternities have been welcomed at 186 new colleges and universities in the United States and Canada.



FLEA MARKET — The American Bible Society booth at the flea market was manned by Mrs. Mary Kuepper, an "ASB" colporteur and Chairman of the Malibu Inter-Faith "Keep Christ in Christmas" project, now in its sixth year.

Bible Makes Show In Malibu Flea Market

As of old, Christ was in the market place Saturday, April 25, when the Bible went to the Flea Market in Malibu. Over two hundred booths were erected on the Point Dume Elementary School grounds. Booth rental fees went toward the building fund for a community swimming pool.

The most colorful booth, attracting the greatest attention from the several thousand people who visited the Flea Market between 9:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m., was that of the American Bible Society, representing eighty-six denominations.

Various translations of the Holy Scriptures, including portions in bright, modern, psychedelic colors, were displayed along with the braille Bible for the blind, and Good News for Modern Man, the TEV edition (Today's English Version) of the New Testament, a best seller that has soared beyond the twenty million mark since its introduction in the fall of 1966.

It is today available in various covers from the American Bible Society, and is also on the stands in paper-back form.

Eight Church Leaders Site "Unholy Trinity"

Leaders of eight Southern California religious denominations have united to make an unprecedented plea to the community to halt trends they describe as "destructive of what is human."

These trends, they said, repudiate values in which human dignity is rooted.

The churchmen have issued a statement expressing deep concern at deteriorating conditions in the community, particularly the extent to which citizens resort to violence, drugs and pornography.

They call these "an unholy trinity" whose use is symptomatic of an irrationalism, an escape into unreality, as deceptive as it is dehumanizing.

The churchmen's statement is titled "The New Humanism." It is signed by eight religious leaders, including Rabbi Edgar F. Magnin, Roman Catholic Archbishop Timothy Manning, Methodist Bishop Gerald Kennedy and Episcopal Bishop Francis Eric Bloy.

It is also signed by the Rev. Dr. William H. French, acting executive of the Synod of Southern California, United Presbyterian Church; the Rev. Dr. Carl W. Segerhammar, president, Pacific Southwest Synod, Lutheran Church of America; the Rev. Dr. Fred Register, conference minister, United Church of Christ; and the Rev. Dr. Gaylord Falde, president, Southern Pacific District, American Lutheran Church.

They appeal strongly for fidelity to Judaeo-Christian values on which human dignity is bedrocked and assert that "it is religion that activates our inalienable bonds with our fellow humans."

Fairest Of The Fair Pageant Set June 11

The annual search for a Fairest of the Fair to reign over the Southern California Exposition in Del Mar, June 24-July 5, is nearly over with five local contests remaining before the final pageant on June 11.

The Valley-Grove area will be represented in the contest by two of the loveliest girls in the county, Miss Lemon Grove, Sandi Sjogren, and Miss Spring Valley, Janet Isley.

The hunt for a successor to Carolee Meachum, Miss El Cajon and Fairest of the Fair in 1969, started in March and covered 25 San Diego County cities and communities. This is the Silver Anniversary of the Fairest of the Fair contest.

Winners of the past 24 pageants have been invited to this year's pageant, and will be introduced following a slide show recalling their reigns.

Doris Boyar, director of the Fairest of the Fair pageant, said rehearsal for the 25 local contest queens will be held June 7, at the Scottish Rite Masonic Memorial Center in Mission Valley.

Judging of the contestants in swim suits starts at 1:30 p.m. June 11, and the pageant and final judging beginning at 7:30 that evening, in the Masonic Memorial Center.

During the pageant Don Diego, official host and symbol of the Exposition for 22 years as portrayed by Tom Hernandez, will introduce Miss Meachum and Mel Knoepp, master of ceremonies.

The Fairest of the Fair winner will receive $500 from the Exposition and other prizes totalling $2,500 in value.

The pageant will climax with the announcement of four runners-up, and the final county-wide winner.

Mount Miguel Students Prepare Experimental Summer Session Course

By Jan Luallin

Many students at Mount Miguel are concerned about the problems that face the world today. Two such students have planned a course to, hopefully, be used in summer school of 1971 as an elective.

Freshman Tom Whigham and senior Mary Jo Ondrechen have devised a course that covers various world problems, how to lessen or prevent them.

In this course students would listen to guest speakers; study, in depth, various problems of modern society; and work alongside social workers. The class would also include pick-up campaigns and money drives which would aid ecological organizations.

When asked why he had planned such a course, Tom said, "Many classes skim over world problems, but none deal directly with them, and this would also be a planning course for the future.

Tom also added, "We need support to present it to the school board. Peace and relieving man's problems are very important, and education will be important in achieving this."

Mary Jo commented on the class, saying "Besides obvious advantages of such a class, this proposal has many far-reaching implications. I would like to see the students of Mount Miguel gain a voice in all future curriculum planning. This school exists for us and we should be allowed to determine, at least partially, what is taught in the classroom."

Mary Jo believes that there are students who are involved in curriculum and that this should prove to teachers and administration members that students do care about more than just extra-curricular activities.

Both Tom and Mary Jo feel that with the support of the students and faculty at Miguel, this course can be passed, and then students will have a chance to do something about the very things they have been protesting.

Teachers have not been excluded from the planning of this course. Tom received the support of the entire Mount Miguel English Department, which then referred him to the social science department. Many other teachers have been involved in promoting this program and helping out with some of the planning.

Miguel Prom Set May 23

The Mount Miguel Senior Prom, to be held at the International Room of the El Cortez Hotel, is scheduled for May 23, from 8 to 12 p.m. The International Room is one of the newest additions to the El Cortez, and its elegant design is fitting for the occasion when seniors are asked to wear formal attire.

This year the theme for the prom is "A Time For Us" taken from the film Romeo and Juliet.

Bids for the event are $3.50 per person. However, if a senior holds a Senior Privilege Card, admission is free. Entertainment will be provided by the Windsors.

The senior after-prom will be held at Parkway Bowl from 12 p.m. to 5 a.m. Bids are $4.50 per couple. White Lightning will provide music for Miguel dancers.

Jan Luallin, senior prom committee chairman, said, "We, the seniors on the committee, have been working on prom plans all year. I hope it will be a great success because of the work that has gone into it. The senior prom is supposed to be the highlight of year, and I hope every senior comes."

Two County Seniors Win $50 Scholarships

Two county high school seniors, both of whom have edited their school papers and are planning careers in journalism, have won $50 scholarships funded by The Daily Californian newspaper and administered by the San Diego County Journalism Education Association.

The award winners are Susan Johnson of Escondido high school and Scott McGaugh of Monte Vista high in Spring Valley.

Susan, a three-year journalism student who is currently Escondido's commissioner of public relations and editor of the school paper, is active in student affairs, now representing her school on a district dress code committee.

Graduating in the top 10% of her class, Susan organized the high school's first journalism day for junior high students and has won awards in county and state writing contests. She plans to attend San Diego State College to prepare for a career teaching English and journalism.

Scott, also a commissioner of public relations, has served as head of the school's press bureau and was editor of the student newspaper in 1969 when it was named the county's best high school paper.

As correspondent for several local newspapers, Scott has amassed over 2,100 column inches of published copy. He won first place in the state high school sports writing contest in Anaheim last month.

He is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Jerrold D. McGaugh of 10746 Melva road in La Mesa.

TOO LATE — Mount Miguel High first baseman, Ted Updike, waits for the ball to hit his glove so he can tag El Cap's runner, who is scampering back to the bag. The throw from Mike Smith was too late to nail the runner, but Miguel won, 1-0.

Miguel Baseballers Beat El Cap On Mike Smith's One Hitter

Mount Miguel's baseball team ended the year on a fine note, Friday when Mike Smith tossed a one-hitter and Art Taylor drove in the game's only run to give the Matadors a 1-0 win over El Capitan.

The Matadors put it together in the first inning when Al Jaggi, El Cap's premier twirler struck out Tim Miller. But Steve Vickery couldn't hang on to the ball, and Miller took off for first base.

Vickery's throw was wide at first, and Miller legged it for second, making it safely.

Art Taylor then teed off on a Jaggi pitch for a single, and Miller came around with what was the winning run.

The Matadors hit Jaggi surprisingly well, netting six hits in the contest, but couldn't bring anybody around, and stranded seven.

The Vaqueros had no trouble getting men on, either, as Smith had a bit of control trouble, walking five.

The win left Miguel with a 6-8 record, good enough for fifth place in the Grossmont league.

In the Grossmont League track finals held Friday night at Granite Hills, Mount Miguel picked up three first places, including two by Billy Jo Winchester.

Billy smashed his meet record in the discus, flipping the platter 193 feet, and also won the shot put with a toss of 62-11.

Bob Morrison, Miguel's rugged distance ace, burned over four laps in 4:22 to win the mile, and to hold the Mount Miguel record for the event. Morrison is a sophomore.

Mike Daugherty, Miguel's top 440 man, took fifth in the event.

In other sports action Friday, the Grossmont League quarter-finals were held at Mount Miguel. Lars Jonsson won his match with no problems, and Grossmont High's Scott Lippman made it through.

Jonsson, the top seed in the tournament, will meet Lippman in the semi-finals later on in a match that should draw all the tennis fans in the county.

Jonsson was thought to be unbeatable a few weeks ago, but slipped up last week and lost his first match of the year. The loss for Jonsson was his only defeat in 56 games, and has given new hope to Lippman fans.

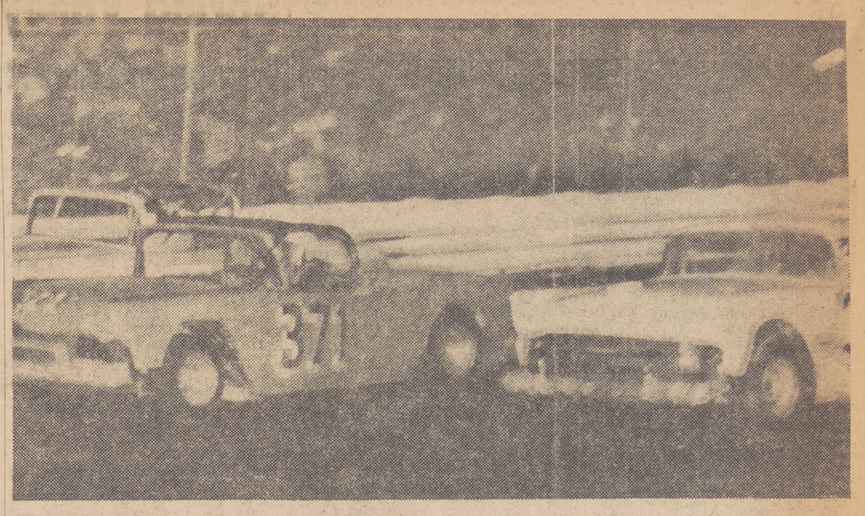
In the Grossmont League swim finals, Mount Miguel could do no better han third, as the Matador depth was a little bit lacking.

Helix High ran away with everything, including eight of the ten first place medals, and Monte Vista, racking up 65½ points managed second.

Mount Miguel got superb efforts from the 400 relay, as the team shaved 8 seconds off the league mark.

Don Johnson picked up Miguel's other first place effort, winning the 100 meter backstroke, and he took secnd in the 200 meter freestyle.

Don Carlson also netted a second in the competition, in the 100 meter butterfly.



EDGING AHEAD — No. 371, Jessie Lewis, of Lemon Grove, moves ahead of Howard McCluan in recent limited stock action at Cajon Speedway. Super stocks and limiteds run every Saturday night at the Speedway. Race time is 8:00 p.m.

Monarchs Drop Toughie To Helix In 16 Innings

Monte Vista's Baseball team lost a tough one last Friday to the marathon-minded Helix Highlanders, 2-1, despite Jesse Bower's fine 4-hit pitching in the first nine innings.

Bower struck out eight men in his nine innings of the 16-frame game, but was tapped for a run in the second inning.

It looked like Helix was going to win a shutout as the Monarchs came to bat in the seventh, but Monte Vista bats brought in a run to tie things at 1-1 and sent the game into extra innings.

The Monarchs and Highlanders then settled down to a pitching duel in the next nine innings, before Oscar Padilla took first on an error, stole second, and came in on Dan Hibben's single to win it for Helix.

The loss left the Monarchs with a 5-9 mark, and tied with Helix for sixth place in the final Grossmont League standings.

In track competition, Monte Vista managed 23 points in the Grossmont League finals, netting only one first place nod when John Dieter won it all in the Long Jump.

Dieter leaped 22-6¼ to edge out Granite Hills Daryl Guthridge, his arch-rival.

Although the Monarchs couldn't win a single first place medal in the Grossmont League swim finals, the swimmers racked up 65½ points to take second place. Helix won with 100½.

Californian Beats Wards To Take Over First Place

Things got hot and heavy last week in the Spring Valley Pony League, as Daily Californian took over undisputed control of first place, after beating Montgomery Ward, 5-3.

Clay Smith belted a round-tripper for the winners, and Mike Stevens sent his second one of the year out of the park for the losers.

In other action, Jerry Erb tossed his second no-hitter of he young season as he led Farmers' Center to a 2-1 win over last-place Spring Valley Shopping Center.

San Diego Rock took it on the chin to the improving Farmers' Center team, 5-4, but managed a win over S.V. Shopping, 5-0 to keep its record above .500 with a 3-2 mark. In other action, Rock edged Shipfitter's A School 3-1.

Daily Californian coninued throughout the week with an undefeated record, shutting out Roy's Campers, 2-0.

Campers bounced back with a 4-3 win over Sharf's Back Hoe, and S.V. Shopping also beat Sharf's, 2-1.

Shipfitters A School picked up its first win of the year against a rugged Farmer's Center, 7-3.

Standings

Daily Calif.	4-0
Mont. Ward	3-1
Farmer's Center	3-2
Roy's Campers	2-2

Rockets Jet West For Hawaiian Exhibitions With Lakers, Bucks

The San Diego Rockets, Los Angeles Lakers and Milwaukee Bucks will invade Hawaii for a series of pre-season contests during September.

The joint announcement was made by the three clubs with Rocket general manager Pete Newell representing the San Diego team.

Tentative plans call for the Rockets to meet the Lakers in the opening game, September 24, at the Honolulu International Center. Games will also be played September 25, 26 and 27 at the same site.

Hawaii is fast becoming a hot bed of basketball, according to Newell.

"There has been a steady increase of interest in basketball in Hawaii," said Newell. "The sellout crowds at the recent college All-Star games there have shown that."

The visit by the Rockets will be their first ever to the 50th state although NBA teams have played there in past years.

SWEDISH SWINGER — Lars Jonsson, Mount Miguel's outstanding tennis player, takes a swing at the ball in the Grossmont League quarterfinals. Jonsson won his match, and will advance to the semis later this week. Jonsson, a foreign exchange student from Sweden, has lost only one match in 56 league matches.

From Iuki, Mississippi: Tommy Dean

Padre shortstop Tommy Dean, a citizen of Iuka, Mississipi, when he was just a youngster, was an avid baseball fan, and a pretty fair ballplayer by he time he hit high school.

But those potential ballplayers who live in Iuka have a problem. There is an over abundance of major league baseball scouts who have never heard of the town, much less make regular visits there in search of baseball talent.

But Tommy Dean never gave up hope. After years of practicing his penmanship, Tommy wrote to all the major league scouts anywhere near the area when he became a sophomore, telling them what a fine baseball player he was, and got his brother to put his signature on the document.

The scouts started turning out when Tommy was a junior (it probably took them a whole year to find the place), and by the time Tommy was about to graduate, there were fifteen scouts lined up waiting for his signature on a contract.

The Dodgers, laden with money and glory, finally won him over, and it was off to the minors for Tommy Dean.

Tommy stayed in the Los Angeles system until 1969, when the Padres gave up ace reliever Al McBean in exchange for the speedy infielder.

Tommy nows plays for the Padres, and was in the lineup on opening day. His fielding is flawless, and he is swinging the bat with more confidence than ever.

Aztec Gets Olympic Berth

San Diego State's Charlie DeLong has been selected as one of six reserves for the United States 1971 Pan American Games and 1972 Olympic Games soccer teams.

DeLong, a 5-8, 160-pound junior, was one of more than 50 taking part in last week's trials in St. Louis. At the conclusion, a 22-man squad, plus the six reserves, was selected. Somewhat surprisingly, DeLong had been out of a cast for only a week and a half before competing. He had sustained a fractured bone in his lower leg during a practice session.

A two-year veteran of soccer at San Diego State, DeLong had previously won All-Southern California and all-conference honors.

Beavers Grab Two Contests, Net First Place

The defending champion Beavers climbed into undisputed possession of first place in Intermediate Division play of the Lemon Grove Little League las week with a pair of impressive victories.

The twin wins elevated the Beavers to a 6-0 won-lost record while Carlton Cabinets Islanders split a pair to slip to 5-1.

Beaver infielder Jose Rico's three run homer triggered a nine run inning to lift his team past the Giants 13-5 and complete the sweep.

The Beavers had opened the week with a 12-4 nod over the Giants despite a home run by Randy Sullivan and a five hit pitching performance by loser Warren Harris.

Chris Russell and Ken Proctor combined to give the Padres a 4-3 decision over the Islanders and snap the loser's win streak at five straight. The Islanders had taken the opener 7-5, overcoming a home run by Padre Ron Laird.

Murphy Plumbing Seals broke into the win column in solid fashion with two triumphs over the Stars. James Murphy pitched a four hitter in an 18-6 victory with the help of a homer by Ken Kisbert.

Richard Palmer's four-bagger paced the Seals to a 22-6 effort to complete the dual wins.

Standings

Beavers	6 - 0
Islanders	5 - 1
Stars	2 - 4
Padres	2 - 4
Seals	2 - 4
Giants	1 - 5

Pads' Pitching Set For Reds' Powerful Bats

The continuing and unresolved argument whether good pitching can check good hitting receives another workout starting Monday at San Diego Stadium.

The San Diego Padres and the division-leading Cincinnati Reds tangle in a four-game series that promises to lure the season's largest attendance.

Single games starting at 7:30 p.m. are scheduled for Monday and Wednesday with a big twi-night doubleheader starting at 6 p.m. booked fr Tuesday.

The Reds, of course, are the hitters extraordinary.

But the Padres' young but skillful pitching staff appears to be equipped to still the Reds' sluggers.

"I certainly can't fault the job our pitchers have done so far this season," manager Preston Gomez said. "Generally, our pitching has been excellent. If we had backed our pitchers with more consistent hitting, we might have turned several defeats into victories."

San Diego's collective earned run average is around the 3.50 mark, meaning that Padre pitchers have allowed fewer than four earned runs per game. That accomplishment is the envy of at least a dozen major league staffs.

But the Padres aren't exactly without some punch themselves and are presently clubbing home runs at a pace near or ahead of Cincinnati's league-leading total of last season.

"Sure there's plenty of long-ball in the San Diego lineup," said Cincinnati manager Sparky Anderson. "I should know. I coached them last year."

Bullring Opens Memorial Day

The new Mexican Fiesta Village, site of the only public "bullfighting college" in the world, will be opened on Memorial Day, May 30, at Tijuana Beach.

Located only 25 miles south of San Diego, and five miles from downtown Tijuana, this $3-million tourist complex is dedicated to serving visitors to the border city for the presentation of authentic sports and customs in the true tradition of Mexico.

"Cortijo San Jose," where the bullfighting, charreada, and rodeo events take place, is a professional-size arena with complete facilities.

La Mesa Police Ask Raise

The La Mesa Police Officers Association have begun negotiations with the City for salary increase of 20.5 per cent, according to Bill Daw, president of the association.

Hale Closes In On Bullen In Cajon Speedway Points

Lemon Grove's Ed Hale served notice on top point leader Russ Bullen that the season is not over at Cajon Speedway.

The Lemon Grove auto wheel builder moved to within 85 points of the leader Bullen by winning his second main event Saturday night.

Bullen has three wins on the season with John Dineen of El Cajon holding the other.

Speed records continue to fall on the high banked oval. 1969 champ, Jim Whitt of El Cajon set a new 8 lap mark of 2:33.41 and Hank Clark of El Cajon dropped the 10 lap best to 3:23:90.

Two time super stock champion Tex Kimbrell of Imperial Beach took over 3rd place in point standings and is slowly getting his 1968 Ford Torino powered by a 427 c.i. Ford Engine in racing trim.

Mini-stockers will go again as an added attraction to the super stock car program, Saturday night.

The winner of the last main event, Jack Daniel in a Cortina GT will defend the honored circle against Ed Halsey in a Cooper and Gil Musgrave in an Anglia.

A dozen cars are expected to compete in the 15 lap main event.

Five Aztecs In Modesto For Cal Relays

Five of San Diego State's nine NCAA championship meet qualifiers will be in the field at this Saturday's California Relays in Modesto.

Aztec head coach Dick Wells plans to enter premier milers Tim Danielson (4:03.1) and Bob Messina (4:03.3) along with 440 intermediate hurdler Wes Williams (51.0), long jumper Arnie Robinson (25-3) and two-miler Charlie Winsor (8:54.2). James King is a possible entrant in the 440 IH.

Last weekend the Aztecs made their final 1970 appearance as a complete unit by placing fourth in the Pacific Coast Athletic Association championships in Fresno.

Defending champion San Jose State retained its crown with 74 points followed by Cal State Long Beach, 55; Fresno State, 54; San Diego State, 52; Cal State Los Angeles, 46; UOP, 24; and UC Santa Barbara, 10.

Despite the disappointing finish, SDS had four individual winners (all with meet record performances) and set one school record.

Wes Williams set a conference standard in the 440 IH at 51.4, breaking his own former mark of 52.8. Williams also held the triple jump record temporarily until Chris Watkins (Cal State LA) surpassed him on his final jump.

Wes finished second at 50-6-3/4 which is a new school mark, bettering his former bes of 48-6.

Arnie Robinson went 25-3 for first in the long jump and a conference record while first places and PCAA records also went to Charlie Winsor (14.02.7, three-mile) and Bob Messina (4:03.3, mile).

Sports Shorts

Yankee infielder Pete Ward describes in the current issue of SPORT Magazine "the best I've ever seen Hank Aaron handled."

"We were playing an exhibition game against the Braves," says Ward, "and Ron Klimkowski retired the first two men. Then with Aaron coming to bat, a sudden thunderstorm washed out the game. That's the way to handle Hank," concludes Ward. "When he came to bat everyone walked off the field."

Denver Bronco offensive tackle Wallace Dickey, commenting in the current issue of SPORT Magazine on the scant attenion given to offensive linemen, says:

"If Hitler is alive somewhere, you can bet he is disgusted as an offensive guard."

Missionary Reports At San Diego Rally

Missionary Morris Watkins, founder and director of Lutheran Bible Translators, reported on his tour to Liberia, West Africa, at the San Diego Rally of Messengers of Christ this week.

Pastor Watkins wore the garments of a chief with which he was invested as an honor when he visited in the Kpelle tribe. His report to the board, staff, pastors and lay representatives of the organization pointed up a tremendous opportunity in Liberia today.

The Liberian Ministry of Education has extended an invitation to Lutheran Bible Translators to set up a department of linguistics at the University in Monrovia. Young men, natives of some of the 18 tribes, could receive basic instruction in the phonetic alphabet and how to write down the tongue for the first time.

This would open the way to a translation of the Scripture. Now no Bible is available and none can be had because 14 out of 18 of the tribal tongues of Liberia still remain only spoken.

Spring Valley Sailor Is Naval Advisor In Vietnam

Boatswains Mate Second Class John W. Andrews, Jr., U. S. Navy, son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Andrews, Sr., of 8750 Troy st., Spring Valley, is currently serving as naval advisor to the South Vietnamese Navy.

Petty Officer Second Class Andrews is stationed at Vietnamese Navy Coastal Group 11, located near the village of Cua Viet, three miles below the Demilitarized Zone separating North and South Vietnam.

Petty Officer Andrews is one of four U. S. Navy advisors serving at this Vietnamese Navy junk base. Approximately 80 Vietnamese Navymen are currently stationed at this base.

A total of six junk patrol boats conduct operations from this site. A junk crew is composed of five Vietnamese. These junks are used to patrol the South Vietnamese coastline to eliminate the enemy's attempts to infiltrate men and supplies into the I Corps area.

These Vietnamese sailors also engage in search operations, insertion of Allied troops, riverine patrols and night ambush sorties.

Andrews serves as seamanship and gunnery advisor at Coastal Group 11. He has served in this capacity since February 11, 1970. These duties require that Petty Officer Andrews work with his Vietnamese Navy counterparts to ensure that the .30 and .50 caliber machineguns on the junks are properly cleaned and in good working order.

The maintenance of base defensive weapons, such as 60mm and 81mm mortars is also of prime concern.

Petty Officer Andrews entered the U.S. Navy on June 29, 1961. He is married to the former Ryoko Sugahara, who currently resides in Yokohama, Japan.

McCaskey Lauds Clerk James

Stanley A. McCaskey Jr., of La Jolla, a retired steel executive, and chairman of the Committee to Re-Elect Bud James as County Clerk, explained to James' supporters in a recent letter that he was aware of the "fine job Bud is doing."

The statement was based on a study made while McCaskey was executive director of the non-partisan San Diego County Efficiency Study.

James, civic leader and ex-official Clerk of the Superior Court, is seeking a fifth term as County Clerk.

McCaskey noted that in the report transmitted by a study group to the County Board of Supervisors, "I was pleased to report that the County Clerk was one of seven departments or divisions out of 92 in the County which, in our opinion are operating with exceptional efficiency."

James and his staff, operating in four locations in the county, are accountable for $14 million in recoverable revenue, $1.5 million in fees, and $25 million in trust fund activities annually.

His decision to accept the campaign chairmanship, McCaskey explained, was based on the findings of the study group. McCaskey was an executive of Allegheny Ludlum Steel Corporation in Pittsburgh before moving to La Jolla two-and-a-half years ago.

Newsman Seeks Post On State Tax Board

For the first time a San Diego County man is seeking the Fourth District seat on the State Board of Equalization.

Larry Springer, a Republican, the candidate, says he carries the grassroots approach to business and politics.

A weekly columnist, part-time editorial and business consultant, he is a native Californian. He pledges full-time intelligent and factual application to the realities of the office he seeks.

"The Fourth District of the State Board of Equalization comprises the eight southernmost counties, a total of 35 Assembly Districts," says Springer. "It is a partisan office, contrary to popular belief, and the incumbent is a Democrat from Pasadena. Records show that all four members of the Board are Democrats."

"The California Legistlature and the state's electorate have created an immense army of tax collectors by reason of the enactment of the California State Sales Tax. These tax collectors are business establishments of all varieties and are the forgotten people in our tax scheme. The State Board of Equalization, in addition to its other duties, administers the State Sales Tax."

Springer has a record of 50 years in business in the newspaper field and has always operated as an independent and conservative. This record will enable him to bring a wealth of experience and balance to the Board of Equalization.

Swift Punishment Asked For Campus Disorder—Canon

Students who engage in violence should be held totally responsible for their conduct and if found guilty of violent acts they should be punished swiftly. It is not the function of the Universities or the State Colleges to act as appeasers or intermediaries between students and the police.

This view was expressed by Dwayne T. Canon of Ontario, a candidate for the office of state superintendent of public instruction, at San Diego City College.

Contending that "College authorities and educational leaders should remain open to the legitimate grievances of students but no one should tolerate the violent forces of over-reaction or radical confrontation," Canon said:

"As with many Americans, I am sick and tired of violence in our society, on our college campuses, and with a cruel war in Vietnam which has now been extended into Cambodia, but those who preach, instigate and act violently, are a threat to our community regardless of their political persuasion, and whether violence comes from the right or left it ought to be punished.

They are Raymond "Gene" Monce of Spring Valley, an industrial engineer employed at Rohr Aircraft in Chula Vista. Other co-chairman is Attorney James Edmunds of Chula Vista.

Carnival Set For Helix High Friday Night

Helix High School's annual Hoot-Mon Carnival will be held May 22 and from 5:30 to 9 p.m. on the school grounds.

This year Hoot-Mon will feature 21 booths and exhibits sponsored by a variety of clubs on campus.

Traditional booths will be the Senior Class marriage booth, the speech team's jail, and the cheerleader's dunking booth.

"The purpose of Hoot-Mon is to give clubs an opportunity to raise money by sponsoring a booth at the carnival, and at the same time to provide enjoyment and entertainment for students attending this event," John Lillich, Helix' attorney general and Hoot-Mon chairman, said.

Ex-Smokers Sleep Better Says UCLA Med Center

When heavy smokers quit cigarettes, some benefits come fast. Like sleeping better.

Recent research at the U.C.L.A. Medical Center in Los Angeles indicates that heavy smokers dream very little and seldom achieve deep sleep. Their sleep patterns, which are measured by the activity of their brain waves, improve markedly a few days after they quit smoking, though.

Immediately after kicking the habit, ex-smokers may dream excessively and have nightmares. But within several days, their sleep patterns were he same as nonsmokers.

Deep-dream deprivation causes irritation, emotional stress, and fatigue. Dreams — in some way not yet understood — seem to be part of the brain's effort to absorb and reorganize emotionally intense experience.

Dreams usually occur during sleep at regular intervals, about every 90 minutes. The electrical waves of the brain become as active as when the sleeper is fully awake. These periods — called REM sleep because of the rapid eye movements that take place — last for 20 to 30 minutes at a stretch. Smoking interferes with the onset of these periods.

Cigarettes are not the only dream-suppressants. So are most sleeping pills. Though the ads promise sweet dreams, chemicals in the pills inhibit dreaming.

Better sleep is only one of the benefits of quitting smoking. Kicking the habit is essential for better — longer — living. Ask your Tuberculosis and Health Association of San Diego and Imperial Counties for more facts about smoking. It's a matter of life and breath.

Ecology Day Set For Area High School

The Ecology Action Committee at Grossmont High School is planning an Ecology Action Day, June 3.

Their goals are to stir interest in the problems of the environment and to seek solutions. The group consists of 35-40 students who have been meeting after school for the past three months. Advisors are Dennis Cook and Ray Widener, science teachers at Grssmont.

Activities planned include assemblies, displays in the quad, and seminars. The program will start second period, 8:30, and continue until 2.

Richard Lazz, a student from Grossmont Junior College will be speaking at the assemblies on "The Environmental Crisis."

St. Philip's Sets Events For Oldtime Celebrations

St. Philip's Episcopal Church is sponsoring two events for he Lemon Grove Old Time Days . . . St. Philip's Thrift Shop located at 3623 Imperial ave. will hold a "Clean Sweep Sale" and will sell all items in the shop at one half price. The store will remain open evening until 8 p.m. for the three days of the sale beginning today.

An old fashioned Western Beef Barbecue will be held at the church at 2660 Hardy rd. beginning immediately following the parade at noon and serving until 7 p.m. A Dixieland band well known in this area as the Ben Casey All Stars will provide lively entertainment for the event. They are made up of local physicians of whom our own Dr. Sam W. Smith is a member.

The barbecue fare is guaranteed delicious and tickets are available at Bob Vaught's Lemon Grove Camera on Broadway and at the Thrift Shop prior to the event and at the door when you arrive for $1.75 for adults and $1 for children under 10 yrs.

The Rector, Rev. Kenneth R. Johnson has announced that the old/new church will be dedicated by the Rt. Rev. Robert C. Rusack, Suffragan Bishop of the Diocese of Los Angeles Sept. 20. All friends in the community are invited to attend the barbecue and to see this historical old church which has been added to Lemon Grove.

James Not Needed In Office—D'Adamo

Ralph D'Adamo, candidate for the Office of County Clerk, charged his opponent with misleading the public by recent statements released over the television media.

D'Adamo charged that Bud James, County Clerk, inferred that the Office of County Clerk could not operate without him. "It would perhaps", D'Adamo suggested, "be interesting to learn how the office would have operated if his opponent had been successful in his attempt to unseat Sen. Jack Schrade in the 1968 Primary election.

My opponent's campaign was well financed, and he couldn't have felt, at that time, that he was indespensable."

Italians, it is believed, were the first to eat with forks.

Controversial Program Approved At School Board Meeting Monday

The La Mesa-Spring Valley Board of Trustees approved a recommendation to continue and expand the district's participation in the Hilda-Taba social studies program.

In the program, teachers learn how to teach their students to think, using experimental methods.

According to county superintendent Ted Dixon, the plan started in September with over 300 teachers in the county participating. Seven more districts will join the program next year.

The Parent Action Council objected to the plan at the meeting Monday, saying the program is unconstitutional, as it injects one religious teaching into the schools, excluding all others.

Duffy Files On Loss of Campaign Signs

SAN DIEGO — Sheriff's Capt. John F. Duffy, a candidate for Sheriff, has filed a criminal report with the San Diego Police Department charging that more than 100 of his campaign signs have been mutilated or destroyed in the past week.

Duffy also sent a letter to the seven other candidates in the Sheriff's race uring that "we use reason in our campaigning."

"It is not becoming of any Sheriff's candidate to maliciously or intentionally deface or destroy another man's property," Duffy said, "and most especially not when candidates dedicated to enforcing laws are involved."

Duffy said signs he has lost were valued at in excess of $1,500.

"We expect to lose a sign here or there," Duffy said, "but when you're talking about 100, it indicates more than just a random sign being defaced or destroyed."

Veteran Max Cleland, of Lithonia, Ga., who lost both legs and an arm in Vietnam, is a candidate for the legislature.
